CONDITIONS OF SALE

The property listed in this catalogue will be offered and sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The word "Galleries" wherever used in these Conditions of Sale, means the Parke-Bernet Galleries, Inc.

2. The Galleries has endeavored to catalogue and describe correctly the property to be sold but it does not warrant or represent and it shall not be responsible for the correctness of description, genuineness, authenticity, authorship, provenience or condition of said property and no statement contained in the catalogue or made orally at the sale or elsewhere shall be deemed to be such warranty, representation or assumption of liability.

3. All bids are to be PER LOT as numbered in the catalogue, unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer at the time of sale.

4. The highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer shall be the buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, the auctioneer may, in his discretion, determine who is the successful bidder, and his decision shall be final; or the auctioneer may reoffer and resell the article in dispute.

5. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance over the previous bid, may be rejected by the auctioneer, in his discretion, if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

6. The name and address of the buyer of each article, or lot, shall be given to the Galleries immediately following the sale thereof, and payment of the whole purchase price, or such part thereof as the Galleries may require, shall be immediately made by the purchaser thereof. If the foregoing condition, or any other applicable condition herein, is not complied with, the sale may, at the option of the Galleries, be cancelled, and the article, or lot, reoffered for sale.

7. Unless the sale is advertised and announced as an unrestricted sale, or a sale without reserve, consignors reserve the right to bid. Full commissions are payable as to all articles sold, and, if the consignor or his agent is the successful bidder, full commissions are payable to the Galleries to the same extent as if sold to other bidders, without distinction or preference shown to such consignors or agents.

8. Except as herein otherwise provided, title will pass to the highest bidder upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchaser's sole risk and responsibility.

9. Articles sold and not paid for in full and not taken by noon of the day following the sale may be turned over by the Galleries to a carrier to be delivered to a storehouse for the account and risk of the purchaser, and at his cost. If the purchase price has not been so paid in full, the Galleries may either cancel the sale, and any partial payment already made shall thereupon be forfeited as liquidated damages, or it may resell the same, without notice to the buyer and for his account and risk, and hold him responsible for any deficiency.

10. If for any cause whatsoever any article sold cannot be delivered, or cannot be delivered in as good condition as the same may have been at the time of sale, the sale will be cancelled, and any amount that may have been paid on account of the sale will be returned to the purchaser.

11. Unless purchased for resale, the buyer will be required to pay the Federal Excise Tax equivalent to 20 per centum of the price for which sold on jewelry, clocks, silver, gold, furs, etc. Items or categories in this catalogue subject to the Federal Excise Tax are designated by an asterisk (*).

12. Unless exempt from the payment thereof, the buyer will also be required to pay the New York City sales tax of 3 per centum of the price for which all articles are sold.

13. The Galleries, subject to these Conditions of Sale and to such terms and conditions as it may prescribe, but without charge for its services, will undertake to make bids for responsible parties approved by it. Requests for such bidding must be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding as to the amount to be bid and must state the catalogue number of the item and the name or title of the article to be bid on. If bids are to be made on several articles listed as one item in the catalogue, the request should state the amount to be bid on each article, unless the item contains the notation "Lot", in which case the request should state the amount to be bid "For the Lot". The Galleries reserves the right to decline to undertake to make such bids.

14. The Galleries will facilitate the employment of carriers and packers by purchasers but will not be responsible for the acts of such carriers or packers in any respect whatsoever.

15. These Conditions of Sale cannot be altered except in writing by the Galleries or by public announcement by the auctioneer at the time of sale. Neither the auctioneer nor any other representative of the Galleries, however, shall have any authority to waive or alter, in whole or part, any of the provisions of condition of sale No. 2 hereinabove set forth.

CATALOGUE NUMBERS 1 TO 347 INCLUSIVE

NUMBERS 1 to 19 inclusive are the property of Mrs. Wendell Douglas Volk. Numbers 20 to 347 inclusive are the property of an Eastern Educational Institution.

1. LINCOLN, A. Bust portrait; sans beard. Oil painting. Signed lower left: "Douglas Volk". Height, 19½; width, 16½ inches. Old frame, painted and gilded. Circa 1920-25

Depicts Lincoln at about the period of his nomination [1860] for the presidency of the United States.

This painting was found in the studio of the artist after his death.

THIS PORTRAIT WAS NEVER PUBLICLY EXHIBITED

2. LINCOLN, A. Oil painting. Half length portrait; with beard. Signed lower left corner: "Douglas Volk". Height 34 inches; width 29 inches. Gilt frame.

Circa 1920-25

NEVER PUBLICLY EXHIBITED. A MASTERLY CHARACTERIZATION OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN, depicted wearing a beard. Douglas Volk, 1856-1935, was baptized Stephen A. Douglas Volk, honoring the name of Senator S. A. Douglas whose cousin was Volk's mother. Leonard W. Volk, his father, was an intimate friend of the President. All his life he had been haunted by the personality of Lincoln, whom he worshipped.

Accompanying the above are the following letters: L.s. by Robert T. Lincoln, 1 p., Washington, Feb. 1, 1926, thanking Mr Volk for "the photograph of your recently completed portrait of my father . . . From the photograph I should say that it is an excellent portrait . . .". ❖ A.L.s by Cass Gilbert, famous architect, April 21, 1927, to Mr Volk, reading in part: "I must not let another day go by without thanking you for the photograph of your noble portrait of Lincoln. It is the finest portrait of Lincoln in existence and superbly painted. When I saw it in your studio it gave me a real sensation, the pathos, the dignity, the deep sincerity of the man who has striven against overwhelming odds and won the victory . . . It is indeed my dear friend a master work".

[See frontispiece]

3. LINCOLN, A. Head portrait. Oil and pencil sketch on academy board by Douglas Volk, N.A. 1856-1935. Height 15 inches; width 12½ inches. Framed.

4. LINCOLN, A. Original plaster model of bust of Abraham Lincoln from life by Leonard W. Volk, made in April 1860. Height 21½ inches. Piece chipped from clay plinth to which bust is attached.

ORIGINAL MODEL BY LEONARD W. VOLK OF HIS BUST OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN, MODELLED DIRECTLY FROM LIFE. On the bust is written in ink, "Original cast of bust of A. Lincoln from life sittings by Leonard W. Volk, Chicago, Apl. 1860".

Number 4—Concluded]

As a work of art it is thoroughly sculpturesque in style and possesses all the indications of being a most accurate presentment of the great man as he was before the nomination for the presidency of the United States, or before the heavy cares of State had added the furrows to his brow.

A great many accounts have been printed about this particular bust. A most interesting one appeared in the N. Y. Herald, Feb. 7, 1909, entitled "Register of Lincoln's Personality. Interesting Reminiscence by Douglas Volk, son of Leonard W. Volk"; the page from the newspaper accompanies the bust. Mr Leonard W. Volk tells how his father made the mask for the present bust, and details the entire operation setting forth Lincoln's actions.

F. L. Bullard, in his work "Lincoln in Marble and Bronze", 1952, pp. 90-1, reprints Leonard W. Volk's account of the sitting by Lincoln for this bust.

Accompanying the above are letters by George Grey Barnard, Charles Biggs (who visited the Volk studio with Lincoln at time of the making of the bust), and Karl Bitter, all relating to the bust.

Also accompanying the bust are two typewritten letters by Douglas Volk, one signed in full, the other with initials, dated Feb. 21 and Feb. 27, 1931, pertaining to the bust.

A framed half-tone reproduction of a photograph of L. W. Volk in his studio accompanies the bust. On the margin is written the following by Douglas Volk: "Leonard W. Volk. Leonard Wells Volk carving the bust of Lincoln. He had previously (April 1860) made the life mask of Lincoln in this same studio in Chicago (1860). Cast of right hand of the nominee seen below on floor was made together with left, at Lincoln's Springfield home on the Sunday following his nomination . . . Douglas Volk".

5. LINCOLN, A. Original "once remove" plaster cast by Leonard W. Volk from the mold he made of Lincoln's right hand, closed, holding a section of broom-handle cut for the purpose. With inscription "A. Lincoln. By L. W. Volk. 1860".

Cast of the right hand of the great emancipator, showing the tremendous strength of character; the fingers are clenched, the hand knotty and determined.

Mr F. Lauriston Bullard in his work Lincoln in Marble and Bronze, 1952, p. 90, writes "On Sunday, May 20, the day after Lincoln received formal notice of his nomination, Volk came to the Lincoln home in Springfield to make casts of his hands. 'The right hand appeared swollen as compared with the left,' Volk tells us, 'on account of excessive hand-shaking the evening before.' Volk wishes Lincoln to hold something in his right hand, and the candidate went to the woodshed, sawed a few inches off a broom handle, and whittled the edges, so that the cast showed the hand gripping this round stick. For . . . these casts nearly all subsequent Lincoln artists are grateful to the ambitious young sculptor".

[See illustration]

6. LINCOLN, A. Original "once remove" plaster cast by Leonard W. Volk from the mold made of Lincoln's left hand, closed. With inscription "A. Lincoln. By L. W. Volk. 1860". Pieces chipped from two fingers at joints.

See note to preceding description.

[NUMBER 5]

[NUMBER 6]

7. LINCOLN'S BUST. A set of 15 wood modeling tools used by Leonard W. Volk in modeling the bust of Abraham Lincoln from life in Chicago in 1860, and in modeling other works. In a felt cover.

Accompanying these tools is the following note by Douglas Volk, N.A., reading: "Modeling tools made by father (L. W. Volk) in Rome, Italy, 1856—used by him in modeling the bust of Lincoln from life in Chicago, 1860, the bust of Stephen A. Douglas, and all his other works. Douglas Volk".

8. [LINCOLN'S BUST.] Hickory Mallet used by Leonard W. Volk in making the bust of Abraham Lincoln in 1860. In a felt bag.

Pasted on the mallet is a typewritten note and another note in ink which reads: "Hickory mallet. Used by my father sixteen years in New York and Mass. Given me by him in 1847. Since time I have used it. L.W.V." below another note reading "Mallet used by Leonard Wells Volk in making the bust of Abraham Lincoln in Chicago 1860. Prop. of Jessie Volk . . ."

Leonard W Volk's father was a stone cutter who had done ornamental work on the stone of City Hall building, New York City, according to his grandson Wendell D. Volk.

9. DOUGLAS, S. A. Original Life Mask of Stephen A. Douglas, taken in Chicago, by Leonard W. Volk, 1857. In a dove-tailed oak box with carved decorations.

Incised on the inside of the mask is "S. A. Douglas 1857". On a wood bar (strengthening the mask at the jaws, and a part of the casting) is written, "Original cast. L. W. Volk". Incised beneath chin is: "L. W. Volk, fecit".

Attached is the following manuscript note: "Original cast (from life) of Senator Stephen A. Douglas, made in Chicago 1857 by Leonard W. Volk in his Chicago Studio. This is written by his son Stephen A. Douglas Volk . . ."

Accompanying the mask is the copyright certificate issued to Douglas Volk on September 16, 1907, describing it as "A life mask taken from the face of Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, by L. W. Volk, in Chicago in 1867".

Leonard W. Volk married Emily C. Barlow, a cousin of Sen. Stephen A. Douglas, the Democratic candidate in the election of 1860 against Abraham Lincoln. Volk settled in Galena, Ill., and there met Stephen A. Douglas, who became deeply interested in his career. "In 1855, supplied with funds by Douglas, Volk left his wife and child in Pittsfield, and went to Rome. When he returned to the United States in 1857, he opened a studio in Chicago and at once became a leader in art movements there. He organized the first art exhibition held there (1859); he was one of the founders of the Chicago Academy of Design (1867) and its president for a long time."

10. VOLK, L. W., American Sculptor. AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT entitled "Reminiscences of Leonard W. Volk". Written on one side of about 600 leaves, on six pads of paper numbered 1, 3, 6, 7, 9 and 10. A few leaves defective.

A MOST INTERESTING MANUSCRIPT. Each volume is accompanied by a typescript of the manuscript for easier reading. The owner writes "This is all of the diary which we brought from Maine. Evidently there were ten volumes originally. We have sent you six. I think there is one more in the country. If this one or more . . . are found I shall be glad to donate it or them to a party purchasing the others".

The first volume has a title-page, in manuscript, reading: "Introduction, Early Scenes, In Berkshires, Johnny Best, Return to Berkshires, Living with Capt. Farnham". Vol. 3 has title-page "L. W. Volk, Chicago. A hard walk on railroad; Genl. Cass & bust; First visit to Niagara Falls; Journey to St. Louis, studying sculpture, artists there, Archbishop Kenrick; going to Newport; Return to Quincy; Galena; Marrying; Call from Douglas; Return to St. Louis; Moving to Rock Island; Nauvoo; Mr. Joe Smith".

Vol. 6 is without title-page, but in it he describes his first glimpse of Abraham Lincoln and gives detailed account of it, his meeting with him, and his making of the life-mask of Lincoln. Vol. 7 has the following title-page: "Lincoln and Douglas campaigns; enlisting in three months service; death of Douglas, his last speech; In Camp at Cairo; Sanitary Fairs, 1863-75; death of Lincoln; J. Wilkes Booth, his motives; corner stone Douglas monument; journey east; cholera in Chicago; second journey to Rome; Charlotte Cushman; Lincoln's hands; T. B. Read and Sheridan Ride".

Vol. 9 has title-page: "Journey to Naples; Mt. Etna; Ascent of Mt. Vesuvius in eruption; the National Museum & Pompeii; arrival at Rome; studio at Florence; Victor Emmanuel; the temporal power; artists May festival; prejudice against yellow colors; excursions with donkeys".

Vol. 10 has title-page: "Camping soldiers; scorpions are suicide; Camp Santos—sickening sight; return to Rome—races; The great Chicago fire; some tricks of artists; return home; destruction in and about Paris; the battlefield of Champagne".

[See illustration on the preceding page]

11. VOLK, L. W. Three scrap-books kept by L. W. Volk, covering the period 1855-1894. Together 3 vols., 4to, half leather; bindings defective.

INTERESTING MEMENTO OF LEONARD W. VOLK, WHO MADE THE BUST PORTRAIT OF LINCOLN AND MADE CASTINGS OF HIS HANDS FROM LIFE.

These scrap books contain newspaper clippings relating to Volk's bust of Lincoln, Stephen A. Douglas, etc., also clippings on art exhibitions. Included are catalogues of various exhibitions held in Chicago in 1859, 1863, and 1865, containing the listings of various sculptures by L. W. Volk. In that for June, 1865, is listed "The original bust of President Lincoln, in plaster, modelled from life, at Chicago, in 1860" by Volk. Also includes the passport issued to L. W. Volk on Aug. 11, 1855, when he made the journey to Rome, Italy, to pursue his study of sculpture. Included in these books are three letters to Volk by Alfred S. Waugh, the American artist, dated Nov. 14, 1850, Aug. 13, 1851 and Sept. 18, 1851. AN EXAMINATION MUST BE MADE OF THESE VOLUMES TO FULLY APPRECIATE THEIR VALUE.

On the covers of two of the volumes is a note in the handwriting of Douglas Volk, N.A., the son of L. W. Volk; reading: "Very precious documents and articles relating to father, L. W. Volk. Douglas Volk" and the other reading "Scrap-book of my father's (Leonard W. Volk), preserved by his son, Stephen A. Douglas Volk".

12. VOLK, L. W. Bust portrait, in oil, by his son Douglas Volk, N.A. (1856-1935). Signed: "L. W. Volk by Douglas Volk, N.A.". Height, 20; width, 16 inches. In a wood frame carved by the artist's son Wendell D. Volk from an Italian design.

A SPLENDID PORTRAIT. Pasted to the back of the frame is a label showing that it was at one time in the "Pittsfield Art League Exhibition" held in Pittsfield, Mass.

13. DOUGLAS, S. A., American Senator. Full length imperial size photograph of Senator Douglas, made by Gurney & Son, New York. With autograph signature on a piece of paper, and a printed note regarding the photograph, framed as one piece.

AN EXTREMELY RARE PHOTOGRAPH. In the "Reminiscences" of Leonard W. Volk, and as stated in the printed excerpt framed with the photograph, it was made in June, 1860. "The first prints from the negatives were given to me, the imperial which fortunately escaped being in the Chicago fire of 1871, now hangs in the entrance of my home formerly Senator Douglas's summer cottage at Chicago". Accompanying the above is another photograph of the imperial photograph, in 12mo size with an autograph note signed by Leonard W. Volk, April 9, 1890, regarding the photograph, and stating it "was the last photograph taken of him . . . and was taken for me". There is also a photograph of Douglas's birthplace, and one of the statue of him executed by L. W. Volk.

14. DOUGLAS, S. A. Five campaign medals with portrait of Douglas (in copper, brass and aluminum), and a tin-type photograph button of Douglas. Together 6 pieces.

15. OLDROYD, O. H., ed. The Lincoln Memorial: Album-Immortelles. Original Life Pictures . . . from the Hands and Hearts of Eminent Americans and Europeans, contemporaries of . . . Abraham Lincoln. Plates. 8vo, original cloth; top and bottom of backstrip frayed. New York, 1882

FIRST EDITION. Inscribed on front end-paper "To Stephen A. Douglas Volk from his affectionate father, Leonard W. Volk". Pp. 217-20. Contains an article by Leonard W. Volk. These two leaves have been extracted, and replaced on a stub

16. BARTON, W. E. The Women Lincoln Loved, illustrated, [1927] ✧ Abraham Lincoln and Walt Whitman, [1928]. Together 2 vols., 12mo, cloth.

Indianapolis [1927-28]

FIRST EDITIONS, each inscribed by the author. Inscribed on the end-leaf of first work is: "To Douglas Volk, whose work joined to that of his father gives to the world a nobly permanent record of Abraham Lincoln. William E. Barton". Inscribed on the end-leaf of the second is: "To my dear friend Douglas Volk, with admiration and sincere regard. William E. Barton".

17. BARTON, W. E. The Life of Abraham Lincoln. Illustrated. 2 vols., 8vo, original cloth. Indianapolis [1925]

FIRST EDITION. Inscribed by the author in the first volume: "To Douglas Volk whose father gave the world an imperishable record of the face and hands of Lincoln, and whose own brush has interpreted the same great character. I, who have sought through another medium a kindred interpretation inscribe this portrait. William E. Barton. Foxboro, Mass., Oct. 12, 1925". On several pages in vol. II there are pencil notes in the autograph of Douglas Volk, who executed portraits of Lincoln, one of them known as the "With Malice Toward None" portrait.

18. [LINCOLN, A.] The Life of Abraham Lincoln, vol. 2 only (Tarbell), N. Y., 1904; with L.s. by McClure, the publisher, to Leonard Volk ✧ Portrait Life of Lincoln (Miller), Springfield, Mass., 1910 ✧ Gettysburg and Lincoln (Burrage), N. Y., 1906 ✧ and others relating to Lincoln. Together 14 vols., 4to to 12mo, cloth and wrappers; some with cover defects.

AN INTERESTING GROUP, five volumes have the autograph signature of Douglas Volk on the end-leaf; one has inscription "To Douglas Volk, Minneapolis, from his father Leonard W. Volk. Chicago, Mch. 17, 1892".

19. [LINCOLN, A.] Latest Light on Abraham Lincoln (Chapman), N. Y. [1917] ✧ Abraham Lincoln, the Prairie Years (Sandburg), vol. 2 only. N. Y. [1926] ✧ What Lincoln Read (Wilson), Washington, 1932; one of 250 copies. Together 3 vols., 8vo, cloth, etc.

The first two have notations by Douglas Volk, the third has an inscription by the author presenting the work to Douglas Volk.

20. ADDRESS to the Ministers and Congregations of the Presbyterian and Independent Persuasions in the United States of America. By a Member of the Episcopal Church [Seabury], [New Haven.] 1790 ✧ A Letter from John Bowden, A. M. Rector of St. Paul's Church, Norwalk, to the Reverend Ezra Stiles, President of Yale College . . . Milwaukee, Wis., 1880

THE RARE FIRST EDITION, of which the author in the preface to the 1890 edition writes: "Only enough were printed to reach comrades who rode the grim circuit of the 'Bad Lands' in that eventful year, and the little edition was long ago exhausted".

The author was first lieutenant of the Fifth Cavalry, and served throughout the Big Horn and Yellowstone Expedition of 1876. The resulting journal is one of the most interesting narratives of Indian warfare in the Wyoming and Dakota territory which has ever been written.

ONE OF THE MOST AUTHENTIC NARRATIVES OF EARLY NEW ENGLAND

175. LECHFORD, T. Plain Dealing: or, Newes from New England. A Short View of New-Englands present Government, both Ecclesiasticall and Civil, compared with the anciently-received and established Government of England in some material points; fit for the gravest consideration in these times. Small 4to, removed from a binding; title marginal defects, sig. L₂ (pp. 75-6) with small hole, damaging a word on each page. In a cloth folder.

London, 1642

FIRST EDITION OF ONE OF THE MOST INTERESTING AND AUTHENTIC OF THE EARLY NARRATIVES RELATING TO THE COLONY. The author, a lawyer, came to Boston in 1638, where he lived until 1641, and wrote this work. It is full of valuable information regarding the manners and customs of the colony.

The author was manifestly ignorant of the Bible, or perhaps thought that the English divines had added two to the Ten Commandments, for on p. 20 a note reads: "Whereas in England every Sunday are read in public, Chapters and Psalmes in every Church, besides the eleven or twelve Commandments, Epistle and Gospel, the Creed and other good formes . . .". The words "eleven or twelve" are crossed out with pen and ink, as in all copies, probably by the publisher.

181. [LINCOLN, A.] E. EVERETT. An Oration delivered on the Battlefield of Gettysburg (November 19, 1863), at the Consecration of the Cemetery. 8vo, printed front wrapper only present: some text strains. New York, 1863

THE RARE NEW YORK EDITION. LINCOLN'S GETTYSBURG ADDRESS appears on p. 40, and which Jay Monaghan in his Lincoln Bibliography 1839-1939, describes as "one of its first appearances in booklet form". The present appearance of Lincoln's Gettysburg address was, before 1942, considered as the first appearance in book-form, but Mr. Paul M. Angle, Historian of the State of Illinois, in his article Four Lincoln Firsts (Papers of the Bibliographical Society of America, vol. 36, First Quarter, 1942), describes a 16-page pamphlet published at the Washington Chronicle Office, about Nov. 24, 1863, and states "Certainly it appeared long before the carefully printed, 48-page booklet which has heretofore been credited with its first publication". The present printing of Lincoln's address contains the sentence "It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this", which is omitted in the first printing, in pamphlet form, issued by the Washington Chronicle office.

182. [LINCOLN, A.] Maple Leaves from Canada, for the Grave of Abraham Lincoln: being a discourse delivered by the Rev. Robert Norton . . . and . . . Rev. Robert F.
